

Hello there,

See you for your Ukulele Taster Class.

Please find all the details that you should need below:

Date and time: So you get the info right away, please scroll down on the booking page, or check your confirmation for this. If the confirmation didn't arrive, please email me

Please arrive earlier than the class to grab a drink before class. The bar can get busy, so please leave sufficient time for this. Our classes are held in a pub, so we ask that you don't take your own food and drink and that you grab a drink of something on your way up to class. The venue could cancel our booking, and any future bookings because of this, you see.

Address: So you get the info right away, please scroll down on the booking page, or check your confirmation for this. If the confirmation didn't arrive, please email me

*Again, the class is held in a pub - please do grab a drink before class and in the half time break. Otherwise, our booking could be cancelled, which would mean no future ukulele classes.

Food. If you're going to be hungry, the venue have a nice menu. The usual pub food. Please eat before or after the class - your hands will be busy during it! Also, again, please be aware that because the venue serves food and drink as their business, they do not allow us to bring our own food or drink to their premises.

What to bring: Yourself and a good sense of camaraderie! Enough money for the bar, as it's good to oil the wheels so you're warmed up and ready for a sing and a strum. We provide the ukuleles, that are tuned up and ready to go, so you can relax and just get playing.

I hope that this is enough information for you. So that you are aware, generally I am offline, (teaching ukulele is not a computer or office based job - I'm usually working with people rather than a computer in front of me) If you do not receive a response to your email immediately, please don't panic! I will certainly reply to you as soon as I can. There is also our FAQ, which you should find answers any questions you might have. If anything is missing from there, please do email me :)

Look forward to strumming with you soon!

Best wishes,

Lorraine Bow
